

PARAgraphs

Take a new line for the following:

Time

If you move the time on in your work, even if it's before and after, change the paragraph.

Place

If the setting, venue or room being described or explained changes, change the paragraph.

Topic

If the idea, issue or subject matter is different, change the paragraph (this will be the most frequent one you use).

Person

If you are writing about a new character or person, or if there's a new person speaking, change the paragraph (a good one to remember if you're using dialogue).